Mad Romance®

"Exuberant, exhilarating harmony singing"
...The Washington Post

"One of the most exciting groups in the country"
...Ed Bell - WLRN Radio

"Rick Harris is an arranger to be reckoned with."
...Jazziz Magazine

Miami based vocal quartet Mad Romance proudly present their new recording, "Aim High." Leader/arranger Rick Harris has re-formed his acclaimed vocal group, this time with Miami luminaries Lisanne Lyons, Wendy Pedersen, and Greg Diaz.

This latest disk features an eclectic assortment of new and old arrangements, reflecting Jazz, Latin, and R & B influences. There's even a dose of scathing humor in Harris's original composition "Aim Low," satirizing aspects of today's music business.

While all the performers are featured separately, when they join together in four part harmony they create a fifth presence - a powerful voice that infects anyone listening with inspiration to sing or dance ...and play it again.
